This document is for use only during remote worship by members and friends of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Asheville NC, and may not be reproduced or transmitted in any fashion.

On July 15, 1923, eighteen Lutherans, meeting together at the Asheville YMCA, founded the congregation of St. Mark's Lutheran Church. The cornerstone for our church building was laid on Easter Sunday 1932, and the first service was held on May 22, 1932. Six years later a parsonage was built, and a pipe organ installed. By our 25th anniversary in 1945 the mortgage was paid off, and the congregation's status as a mission congregation was ended. A special emphasis during this time was ministry to families traumatized World War II. In 1953, an addition was built including new downstairs classrooms and a kitchen, and in 1968 the project was completed with the dedication of the enlarged chancel and new stained glass windows. St. Mark's became a part of the Lutheran Church in America in 1962, the same year that a mission congregation, Nativity in Arden, was begun by a son of St. Mark's. In 1967 the word "male" was eliminated from the constitutional requirements for council members. Margaret Alsobrooks, Ruth Luca, and Alice Templeton were the first women to serve on our church council. A congregational study in the '70s revealed the need to expand facilities and to become handicap accessible. These and other goals were realized with a dedication on December 10, 1989. Two years earlier our current denominational body came into being, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. In 1996 the congregation recognized the need for a more welcoming worship space that would better reflect our spirit as we moved into the 21st century, which resulted in the Commons, worship in community around a free-standing altar, an elevator, and the new Martin Ott tracker organ. Just a few years ago the congregation committed to another building campaign which has renovated office, classroom, gathering, and work spaces, and will allow us to host an early childhood development center. As we move toward a century of witness in Asheville, let us rejoice in the witness of those who have gone before us, thank God for the gifts we have been given, and continue to serve our neighbors and share the light of Christ. Soli Deo Gloria!

Reading

Ephesians 4: 7-8, 11-16

Each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore it is said,

"When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive;
he gave gifts to his people."

The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ. We must no longer be children, tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of doctrine, by people's trickery, by their craftiness in deceitful scheming. But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love.

The Annunciation

An angel went from God to a town called Nazareth, to a woman whose name was Mary. The angel said to her, "Rejoice, O highly favored, for God is with you. You shall bear a child, and his name shall be Jesus, the chosen one of God most high." And Mary said, "I am the servant of my God, I live to do your will."
