Daily prayer is a gift that nourishes growth toward living all of daily life in prayer. Compline offers a time to acknowledge both the gifts and the failings of each day, and we commend ourselves and the whole world into God's hands as night comes.

Opening Verses

Almighty God grant us a qui - et night and peace at the last.

A - men.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praise to your name, O Most High;

to herald your love in the morning, your truth at the close of the day.

Night Hymn

“All Praise to Thee”

1* All praise to thee, my God, this night for all the bless-ings of the light.
 2 For - give me, Lord, for thy dear Son, the ill that I this day have done;
 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread the grave as lit - tle as my bed.
 4 Oh, may my soul in thee re - pose, and may sweet sleep mine eye-lids close,
 5 Praise God, from whom all bless-ings flow; praise God, all crea-tures here be - low;

Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings, be - neath thine own al - might - y wings.
 that with the world, my - self, and thee, I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.
 Teach me to die, that so I may rise glo - rious at the awe - some day.
 sleep that shall me more vig - rous make to serve my God when I a - wake!
 praise God a - bove, ye heav'n - ly host; praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost.

* May be sung in canon.

Confession and Forgiveness

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence for self-examination

Holy and gracious God,

I confess that I have sinned against you this day.

Some of my sin I know — the thoughts and words and deeds of which I am ashamed — but some is known only to you. In the name of Jesus Christ I ask forgiveness.

Deliver and restore me, that I may rest in peace.

By the mercy of God we are united with Jesus Christ, in whom we are forgiven.

We rest now in the peace of Christ and rise in the morning to serve him.

Amen.

Psalm 4

Sung by all

- ¹Answer me when I call, O God, defender | of my cause;
you set me free when I am hard-pressed; have mercy on me and | hear my prayer.
- ²"You mortals, how long will you dishon- | or my glory;
how long will you worship dumb idols and run aft- | er false gods?"
- ³Know that the LORD does wonders | for the faithful;
when I call upon the LORD, | he will hear me.
- ⁴Tremble, then, and | do not sin;
speak to your heart in silence up- | on your bed.
- ⁵Offer the appointed | sacrifices
and put your trust | in the LORD.
- ⁶Many are saying, "Oh, that we might see | better times!"
Lift up the light of your countenance upon | us, O LORD.
- ⁷You have put gladness | in my heart,
more than when grain and wine and | oil increase.
- ⁸I lie down in peace; at once I | fall asleep;
for only you, LORD, make me | dwell in safety.

Reading

Genesis 1: 14-18

And God said, "Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth." And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

Reading

Matthew 16: 1-14

The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and to test Jesus they asked him to show them a sign from heaven. He answered them, "When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.' And in the morning, 'It will be stormy today, for the sky is red and threatening.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times. An evil and adulterous generation asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah." Then he left them and went away.

The reading of scripture is followed by silence for reflection and meditation.

Hear my prayer, O Lord; listen to my cry.

Keep me as the apple of your eye;

hide me in the shadow of your wings.

In righteousness I shall see you;

when I awake, your presence will give me joy.

Be present, O merciful God, and protect us through the hours of this night, so that we who are wearied by the changes and chances of this life may rest in your eternal changelessness; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

O God, your unfailing providence sustains the world we live in and the life we live: Watch over those, both night and day, who work while others sleep, and grant that we may never forget that our common life depends upon each other's toil; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
